JEP HOWE WINS HIS ACQUITTAL OF SPEEDING CHARGE

Makes Speech for Himself, and City Attorney and Judge Kimmel Speak for Him.

BITTER AT POLICEMAN

Prisoner, Witness and Lawyer
All in One, Triumph Over
Unaided Accusers.

Tuesday was a day of oratory in Municipal Police Court as a result of the appearance of Jeptha D. Howe, peppery politician, as a prisoner before the bar charged with speeding 30 miles an hour on Locust street Monday.

Howe, as his own attorney, made a speech to the court. City Attorney Garache spoke in defense of the policeman. Judge Kimmel also made a speech in Howe's behalf, and when it was all over the police were speechless.

And it was a gala day for politicians, about 100 of whom left their offices in the Municipal Courts Building and the city hall to hear what Howe had to say about the "lying policeman." When the case was called the room was packed.

Howe stood in front of the witness stand and disdainfully surveyed Motor Cycle Policemen Wanda and Bender while they were testifying against him.

Bender found himself without the usual assistance given to policemen by the City Attorney. He didn't have a legal adviser to ask leading questions and assist in making a case against the defendant. For Vital W. Garache, the City Attorney, stood by him.

Cross-Examined by Howe.
Howe cross-examined Bender and Wanda. He inquired if Wanda had not gone ahead of Bender and motioned his partner to come on after him. "No," Wanda replied.

"Don't you know that you are deliberately lying?" Howe exclaimed. "Didn't you, in the police station yesterday, make the statement that you did that?"

Judge Kimmel told Howe to take the witness stand and make a statement, but Howe stood just where he was, and when the cross-examination of the policemen began the day's speakingman. He said that he was not traveling more than 15 miles an hour; the police knew him and he knew them; they approached him recently on Lindell boulevard a few days ago and were accused him of speeding at that time.

"And that fat-faced officer (apparently indicating Wanda) went ahead on Locust street and motioned the other man to come up," Howe said, in an argumentative tone, rather than that of a witness. "I thought he meant for me to come on and I put on speed going up the hill from Eighteenth to Seventeenth streets. I was arrested between Seventeenth and Eighteenth street and these officers' statement that I was arrested at Eighteenth street is as false as the rest of the statements they make."

"Well, now police treated him," Howe told how Wanda drove up, said "good morning" and told him he would have to go to the station for speeding. Howe said he replied he would go to the station, and he would "see the thing through." The policeman told him, he said, that he'd go in "the wagon" if he got fresh. And then Howe told about his experiences at the police station, where the desk sergeant, whom he had known 12 years, pretended not to know his name and made him go through the routine provided for every person arrested. He told how he had just entered Chief Young's office on the third floor to "see the thing through" when his automobile caught fire in front of the station, damaging it $400 to $500.

Howe was discussing the sergeant's refusal to release him on his own recognizance when City Attorney Garache made a speech in the former boss' favor.

"Yes, your Honor, it has been customary for a prominent man to sign his own bond, and usually they are allowed to hand their card to the policeman and not go to the station," Garache said.

Judge Kimmel then began speaking, winding up in Howe's defense. "The action of the desk sergeant and the whole case looks like a frame-up," Judge Kimmel said. "I can't believe Mr. Howe would make these statements unless they were true, for when he was in my court Jan. 14, 1913, he pleaded guilty to speeding, paid his fine and left the court with a smile on his face. Defendant discharged."

E. L. PRETORIUS IS CUT BY GLASS WHEN CAR HITS AUTO

Publisher's Face Probably Scarred for Life When His Limousine Is Struck at Ninth and Chestnut Streets.

Edward L. Pretorius of 434 West Pine boulevard, president of the company which publishes the St. Louis Times, was severely cut about the face and neck when his automobile, a seven-passenger limousine, was struck by a south-bound Cherokee car at Ninth and Chestnut streets, at 8:10 a. m. Tuesday.

Elmer Brooks, Pretorius' negro chauffeur, was driving the car east on Chestnut street and crossed the Ninth street tracks at the "far" side from the south-bound car. Nevertheless, the chauffeur says, the street car descended on him, without a warning bell, at a speed which he estimated at 25 miles an hour.

Flying Glass Cuts Pretorius.
The automobile was struck in the middle, and was knocked into a position directly in front of a northbound car, which was standing at the south side of the crossing.

The plate glass in the side windows of the limousine was shattered, and the fragments struck Pretorius, who was thrown against the unbroken rear window. A deep gash 5 inches long was cut in the left side of his face, extending to his neck, and a wound was inflicted behind his right ear. Physicians said the cuts would leave lifelong scars.

Pretorius, though suffering from the shock and loss of blood, was able to walk two blocks to the city dispensary, where the wounds were dressed. He was then taken home.

Witness Tells of Accident.
At the dispensary, Pretorius said the chauffeur's account of the accident was correct, as to the speed of the street car and the lack of any warning.

At his home, a physician in attendance said that there were no internal injuries. Notwithstanding that the windows in the limousine were shattered, the eyeglasses worn by Pretorius were picked up from the street by a policeman unbroken.

In the car with Pretorius was his pet dog, which was not even scratched in the accident.

The police took the names of Clement Green of 2767 Geyer avenue, motorman of the Cherokee car, and Walter M. Gregg, inspector for the Kinloch Telephone Co., a witness to the accident.

Gregg, who was standing on the southeast corner at Ninth and Chestnut streets, said he thought the street car was running at a speed of 25 miles an hour. He said he did not hear the motorman sounding any warning as the car approached the intersection.

Pretorius' chauffeur, he said, slowed up at the corner as if to look out for a car.

JOHN SKELTON WILLIAMS
CHOSEN COMPTROLLER

President Makes Nomination
After McAdoo Learns His Aid
Probably Will Be Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Wilson today nominated John Skelton Williams of Virginia, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, for Comptroller of the Currency and ex-officio member of the Federal Reserve Board, which will administer the affairs of the new currency system.

Williams is now Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in charge of the fiscal bureau and Secretary of the McAdoo's first assistant in matters of Government finance. The office of Comptroller has been vacant several months. It has been said the great financial interests were opposing Williams for "the post."

Announcement of Williams' selection followed a conference between President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo. It is understood that in the President's absence, McAdoo has been sounding Senators and believes the nomination will be confirmed.

Roll of Fame After Long
Opposition to Her.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—From Paris comes the news that at last the name of Sarah Bernhardt has been added to the roll of fame of the Legion of Honor. Her claims have been put forward several times but heretofore the influence of a strong element in French society has prevented the French actress from obtaining the decoration.

Among the famous women who are possessors of the red ribbon are Adele Patti, Mme. Curie, the Baroness de Rothschild, Mme. Paquin, and Mme. Dutrieu, the aviator.

Dailey was killed when struck with a pick handle by one of a gang of foreign laborers at Mitchell several weeks ago when he taunted them.

RICHARD J. HOWARD AND ACTRESS BRIDE AT A HOTEL HERE

Wealthy Youth and the Former Dorothy Dale Are Staying at the Windermere.

WOMAN IS WITH THEM

Mother of Bridegroom Refuses to Tell Her Intentions
Toward the Couple.

Richard J. Howard and his bride, who was Dorothy Virginia Levy, and who has been known on the stage as Dorothy Dale, are at the Windermere Hotel, Delmar and Clara avenues, where they arrived Sunday night. Their marriage, which took place in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York, Dec. 15, was first made known in St. Louis by a dispatch printed in Sunday's Post-Dispatch.

Woman Accompanies Couple.
A woman, who registered as Mrs. Fease, and who is said to be of middle age, accompanied the Howards on their arrival at the Windermere, and took a room there.

Howard is 22 years old, and is the son of Mrs. Edwin Howard of 518 Waterman avenue, and a grandson of the founder of the Evans & Howard Fire Brick Co. He is a nephew of Mrs. Peyton Skipwith Jr., a well-known society matron, and another aunt is Mrs. Emma Webster Powell, a leading member of select patriotic societies here.

Were Assured in New York.
Dispatches from New York to the Post-Dispatch have stated that Howard and his bride were annoyed, while at the Hotel Astor, and later at an apartment which they occupied on Riverside Drive, by card sharps and swindlers, whom the young man is said to have encountered on board ship. Their telephone calls, letters and requests for interviews are said to have caused the young couple to leave the hotel and take refuge in the apartment.

William G. Morgan, an attorney in the Merchant's Laclede Building, who represents Howard's mother in legal matters, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Tuesday that he went to New York last week, and that he started Howard and his bride to St. Louis. He would not answer questions as to the arrangements which the Howards underwent in New York.

Howard, when seen by the reporter, would answer no questions about the matter, and his mother refused to say whether she had seen him or his bride since their arrival here, or to comment on the case in any way.

"I know nothing, and I will say nothing," was her reply to questions about the couple.

Howard was recently a student in the Virginia Military Institute, at Lexington. He went to London last fall to place himself under treatment by an oculist, and to try to make a reversible turpitude which he invented.

New York dispatches have stated that Howard and Miss Dale met in London and that they were married there, the ceremony in New York being a second one.

Richard J. Howard's share in the estate of his father, the late Edwin T. Howard, was $44,463, according to a document of final settlement on file in the Probate Court.

The elder Howard died in 1898, leaving no will. His wife, Belle Ridgely, and her father, James Downs, of Assumption, Ill.

Mrs. Ridgely, who with her father, invested about $53,000 in Donaldson's stocks, asked the Illinois State Board of Pardons that Donaldson be paroled on the grounds that the stocks which she had thought worthless are now yielding a good return. Mrs. Ridgely told the board the stocks which he sold her are now "making good," and she believes she will get back all the money she put into them.

Mrs. Ridgely's request for the parole was endorsed by the Judge who tried Donaldson in the Christian County Circuit Court. Donaldson, Monday, was paroled to his attorney, L. V. Hill of Hillsboro, Ill.

Donaldson is under sentence in Missouri for three years for a crime since far to the one of which he was convicted in Illinois. He was released from the State penitentiary in Jefferson City to protect his bondsmen when he was ordered by the Supreme Court of Illinois to be sent to Chester several months ago, when that tribunal affirmed the judgment of the Christian County Circuit Court. Donaldson being technically out on bond pending the Illinois appeal.

If the Missouri authorities still want Donaldson, he will be detained on parole at Chester, but it is understood they have agreed not to molest him as long as he does not break his parole.

His final discharge from custody at Chester in case he keeps his parole may be within one year or it may be two years, at the discretion of the State Board of Pardons.

Donaldson formerly lived at 5700 Bartmer avenue and was interested in the promotion of many mining stocks. At the trial on which he was convicted in St. Louis in May, 1911, Mrs. Ridgely testified that he went to Assumption, Ill., her home, and made love to her in order the more easily to induce her to invest in the stocks. She also said he prayed with her. He was formerly a preacher.

Letters and testimony were introduced to show that, while the combination courtship and financial deal was under way, Donaldson, though a married man, called Mrs. Ridgely his "honey pet" and signed his letters, "Your own dear Butler."

SHIP IN GALE HITS ROCKS AT BAY OF FUNDY; 150 ABOARD

Royal Mail Steamer Cobequid
Sends Help Call, Then Wireless Apparently Fails.

By Associated Press.
HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 12.—Groping for way toward St. John, N. B., through a blinding snowstorm, the Royal mail steamer Cobequid struck on a ledge at the entrance to the Bay of Fundy early today. After sending out wireless calls for assistance the vessel's wireless apparatus apparently failed and it has not been possible to restore communication with her. She is said to have 150 persons on board, including a crew of 75 men.

Reports received here state that the steamer reported that her forward hold was filled with water and that she was listing badly. The Bay of Fundy was swept today by a terrific northwest gale, accompanied by thick snow, which made difficult the task of locating and assisting the steamer.

News Sent by Wireless.
The first news of the Cobequid's plight reached here in a dispatch to the Department of Marine and Fisheries from the Cape Sable wireless station. The message said:

"Five a. m. today Cobequid reports being on the rocks off Bridport Island, Bay of Fundy. Have advised Kronprinzessin Cecilie to please assist."

It was subsequently learned by telephone from West Port, the nearest port to Bridport, that no sign of the Cobequid could be seen from there.

Steamer Ordered to Rescue.
C. C. Harvey, agent of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, sent wire instructions to the Government steamer Lady Laurier to proceed to the steamer's assistance. Under favorable conditions the Lady Laurier should reach the Cobequid early tomorrow.

The Cobequid is a packet steamer of 274 tons. She left Grenada in the West Indies for Halifax, Dec. 30, stopping at several points on the way. It was said that she carried a number of passengers from the Cobequid.

Schooner John Paul Sinks in Nantucket Sound.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Jan. 12.—The three-masted schooner John Paul of Ellsworth, Me., sank in Nantucket Sound today while in tow of the revenue cutter Aqueduct. Word of the sinking came in a wireless message from the schooner.

The message made no mention of the crew of the John Paul. It is thought here that with the westerly gale and high seas which prevailed, their transfer to the revenue cutter could have been accomplished only with great difficulty and danger.

The schooner carried a crew of six men and was in command of Capt. Hutchison. It registered 350 tons net.

THOUSANDS KILLED, CITY IS BURIED BY VOLCANO IN JAPAN

Kagoshima Which Had Population of 60,000 Covered by Ashes
and Stones From Eruption

HUNDREDS PERISH IN LAVA TIDAL WAVE AND QUAKES

350 Tremblors Recorded in One Day; Dust
Showered on Nagasaki, 90 Miles Away; Government Orders Army and Navy to Relief of Stricken Inhabitants

By the Associated Press.
NAGASAKI, Japan, Jan. 12.—Indications today are that the death list from the earthquakes and volcanic disturbances around Kagoshima will run into the thousands.

Government authorities, acknowledging the heavy loss of life, declare that any accurate official estimate of the extent of the disaster will be impossible for several days.

The population of the city of Kagoshima, which is almost completely buried in volcanic ashes and stones, was 60,000 at the last census. The population of the adjoining island of Sakurajima, the center of the disturbance, is given as 15,000.

On this island hundreds are reported to have perished beneath the streams of molten lava from the volcano of Sakurajima. Many more were undoubtedly drowned while attempting to escape.

Doctors and hospital attendants have been sent to the scene, but it is difficult to reach the spot, as railroad communication is impeded by the heaps of ashes and the tracks have been displaced by the earthquakes.

A tidal wave added to the terror to the earthquake and volcanic eruptions. It is believed that the Kagoshima disaster will prove to be one of the most serious in the history of Japan. The loss of life and property increases with fuller news from the scene.

The violence of the eruption of Sakurajima is so great that showers of dust are falling here today, although the distance between Nagasaki and the island of Sakurajima is about ninety miles.

A refugee who arrived here from Kagoshima gave the following account of the disaster:

"The eruption started suddenly, with columns of thick black smoke and flame from the crater of Sakurajima. Hundreds of the inhabitants of the small island in the Gulf of Kagoshima, where Sakurajima is situated, rushed to the beach and leaped on board junk and steamers, which carried them across three miles of water to Kagoshima, ashes, stones and particles of white-hot lava falling all the while on the decks.

Heat at Kagoshima intense. The constantly increasing heat of glowing cinders made it impossible for the citizens to remain.

"The horror" was increased by the shaking caused by incessant shocks of earthquakes, which rocked the houses all day. More than 350 earthquakes shocks were recorded before midnight.

"The people fled in disorderly droves along the highways leading west and north of the city. They had abandoned everything in their flight and soon they were suffering also from lack of food and drink.

Volcano Like Fireworks.
"When I left Kagoshima the volcano resembled an enormous set-piece of fireworks, glowing from the foot of the mountain to the summit. During the night the glowing lava illuminated the entire district.

"The burning rock and ashes set fire to several villages. At Moji, on the island in the Gulf of Kagoshima, where Sakurajima is situated, rushed to the beach and leaped on board junk and was commemorated by a monthly festival. This day is still observed by many people and for decades no boats were allowed to leave the island during the celebration, a rule which is said to have had its origin in superstition.

The surrounding coasts and the country in several directions are heavily populated and the number in the disaster zone is hundreds of thousands. The chief city in danger is Kagoshima, which lies almost in the shadow of the volcano, and is separated from it by a narrow strait.

Kagoshima a Historic City.
Kagoshima is one of the historic cities of Japan. It is the old capital of the famous Satsuma clan, so conspicuous in both the old and the new Japan and the scene of the last battle of the Satsuma rebellion. The great sign, who of the revolution, committed here last when he saw his last line waver and fall, and the graves where he and hundreds of his warriors lie constitute one of the great national shrines.

When Japan refused to give satisfaction for the murder of the Englishman, Richardson, in 1862, Great Britain dispatched a squadron of seven ships under Admiral Kuper, who bombarded and burned Kagoshima. The later fame of the city rests on the manufacture of the well-known Satsuma crockware.

Fragmentary dispatches indicated there has been heavy loss of life in Kagoshima and its vicinity and it is feared that this deadly work continues and will take larger range when advice are complete.

Ashes Fall in Nagasaki.
The city is the center of a large pottery and porcelain industry which employs thousands of artisans and laborers of both sexes. The heavy ash fall extends far to the north and has seriously injured the important cities of Nagasaki and Kumamoto, as well as many small cities and towns. Of these only Nagasaki has any considerable foreign population. There are about 30 Europeans and Americans there.

Local scientists do not expect that there will be much loss of life from the constant earthquakes because the buildings are of light material and low, but they do fear that thousands will be overwhelmed at Kagoshima and surrounding towns. The railways are cut and escape by sea is open only to limited numbers, and blind flight on foot is the only recourse for the great bulk of the population.

Warships Near Kagoshima.
The tragedy has deeply moved people and Government and every resource of aid will be called upon. The army, the navy, the state-owned railway system and the steamship companies will make in relief expeditions.
Warships are already groping their way through the ash clouds that hang pale over Kagoshima Gulf and during the day it is expected that wireless instruments will begin recording the accurate details of the disaster, despite the discouragement of their first efforts.
The great naval base at Sasebo is within less than a day's steaming of the stricken district and the admiralty officials announce that every available vessel will be hurried to the scene with medical relief and supplies of food.

New Hebrides Island Devastated and Villages Destroyed by Volcanoes.
Associated Press, Jan. 12.—The entire western part of the island of Ambrym, New Hebrides, has been devastated by volcanic eruption, according to news brought by the Canadian-Australian liner Makura yesterday.

Word was received at Sydney prior to the departure of the Makura that on Dec. 6 half a dozen new craters were observed in active eruption, and on the following day Mount Minnie collapsed, inhabitants of the district were compelled to take refuge in boats, which had hardly reached when two new craters burst, overwhelming the court-rooms with lava on its way to the sea.

Many Natives May Have Perished.
Villages on the eastern coast were abandoned. No loss of life was reported among the white population, and the fleeing people are said to have taken refuge at Port Sandwich. It is probable that many of the natives on the western part of the island and the interior have perished, retreat towards the sea having been cut off by lava.

The steamer France succeeded in saving 600 natives. Most of them were old men, women and children, left behind by young, able-bodied men, who at the first sign of danger took flight in canoes.

Western Part of Island Affre.
The western part of the island was all affre. No trace of vegetation was left. The rest of the island is covered with cinders, even the trees being bent by the weight. The water is scarce everywhere, the rivers having been transformed into burning lava.

Returning after a visit to other ports, Capt. Charvin, master of the France, passed as closely as safety permitted to Ambrym. The eruptions were more active than ever. The upheaval was so violent that all aboard expected that part of the island would disappear. There were terrible detonations, clouds of steam, lava and cinders rising to a great height, lightning, ashes every-where, accompanied by a continuous rumbling. The air was filled with dust and sulphur fumes.

SERUM USED AS PARESIS CURE FAILS TO SAVE MAN

Patient Dies After Liquid Is Injected Into His Brain at Philadelphia Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—A patient in a local hospital upon whom surgeons yesterday performed a rare operation in an effort to save him from death of paresis, died today and surgeons who had watched the case with keen interest say that one of the most heroic experiments of surgery has gone to naught.

Surgeons bored a series of holes in his skull and injected into the diseased brain a serum used only in the most dangerous of all blood diseases. The patient was 61 years old.

The operation, performed twice in Paris, has proved of benefit in arresting the disease. The operation yesterday was the first of its kind performed in this country. It is said the patient did not revive sufficiently from the shock, because of previously weakened vitality.

24 HORSES DRIVEN FROM STABLE AS FIRE RAGES

Building Occupied by Reid Brothers' Express Co., Damaged to Extent of $20,000.

The presence of mind of Policeman Charles Weniger probably saved 21 horses from cremation when a two-story brick building at 616 Bertha avenue, occupied by the Reid Bros. Express Co., caught fire from an unknown cause at 6:40 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Weniger discovered the fire, and after turning in the alarm, opened the stable door and drove out the horses. The damage to the building was estimated at $20,000 and $10,000 to the contents. Most of the horses have been caught.

DOCTOR IS HELD FOR DEATH OF A WOMAN

Coroner's Jury Finds Dr. Charles W. Wilson Was Criminally Careless in Operation.

A Coroner's jury Tuesday decided the death of Mrs. Grace Stout at the Jewish Hospital, Sunday, was caused by the criminal carelessness of Dr. Charles W. Wilson, 2903 West Belle place.

Mrs. Stout was the wife of J. W. Stout, 530 Walton avenue.

Dr. Wilson testified he performed an operation on Mrs. Stout, but he thought her death resulted from natural causes. An autopsy, physician testified that upon examination of the body he found an instrument had penetrated one of the vital organs, causing death.

Dr. Wilson gave $500 bond.

CENSUS SHOWS GREAT LOSS OF LIFE BY WAR

Male Population of Bulgaria's Portion of Macedonia Reduced From 175,000 to 42,500.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Jan. 12.—A striking illustration of the terrible human waste in war is furnished by the census just taken of the new Bulgarian territories acquired by conquest.

The male population of that portion of Macedonia allotted to Bulgaria was reduced during hostilities from 175,000 to 42,500. In Bulgarian Thrace only 225,000 males remain out of a total before the war of 624,000, while in the district of Mustafa Pasha, where fighting waged long and fiercely, only 4000 males are left out of 33,000.

New York's Morals Improving.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The commission of 14, organized in 1910 to fight commercial vice in New York City, in its annual report, made public today, contends the city is showing steady improvement in its morals, and conditions have changed for the better in many particulars.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR BACK HURTS, SURELY FLUSH YOUR KIDNEYS WITH SALTS

Eating too much meat forms uric acid, which clogs the kidneys, irritates the bladder and causes Rheumatism.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all your body's waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is bad you have rheumatic twinges.

either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acid so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder trouble.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.—ADV.

SURGEON ELOPES WITH NURSE AS RESULT OF DARE

Dr. C. H. Wachenfeld and Miss Lillian Sauer Wed in Early Morning in Maplewood.

Dr. C. H. Wachenfeld, 27 years old, physician and surgeon, who has offices in the Planters Hotel, and Miss Lillian Sauer, 20 years old, a nurse, who lives with her sister, Mrs. Lou Kaub, at 2606A Arsenal street, were married in Maplewood Tuesday at 1:30 a. m., by Justice Willeken, whom they routed from bed after a dash by auto from Clayton, where they had been unable to find a justice.

Dr. Wachenfeld, who is opening new offices in room 418 Third National Bank Building, told a reporter the marriage was the result of a wager between himself and August Goessling, M. A. G. athlete, the bride's brother-in-law, who dared him to elope while relatives were preparing an elaborate wedding celebration, to take place in March. The young physician said he and his wife had been opposed to anything but a quiet wedding.

Miss Sauer and Dr. Wachenfeld, with Goessling, took a reporter the marriage to the American Hotel. It was here that Goessling dared them to elope, Dr. Wachenfeld said.

The couple hired a taxi and with Goessling drove hurriedly to Clayton, arriving there at 11 p. m. After a futile search for a Justice of the Peace they dashed back to Maplewood. Justice Willeken was routed from bed and the ceremony followed. The bride and bridegroom returned with Goessling to the latter's home in Webster, where they will reside temporarily.

The romance, it was learned, had its inception when Dr. Wachenfeld was a typhoid fever patient at St. Johns Hospital, where Miss Sauer was a nurse. Dr. Wachenfeld said she was assigned to his case and the courtship began. They decided to marry and Miss Sauer gave up her practice when her fiancé recovered.

Dr. Wachenfeld is a graduate of Washington University. He came here five years ago from his home, Iowa City, Ia., where his stepfather, W. H. Bailey, is a prominent attorney. Bailey formerly was State Treasurer of Iowa.

HOUSTON MENTIONED FOR FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD

President Wilson Is Said to Be Considering Cabinet Member for Banking Place.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—President Wilson is said to be considering Secretary David F. Houston of the Department of Agriculture as a member of the Federal Reserve Board.

Houston, St. Louisan, took an active interest in the framing of the currency act and with Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo makes up the Reserve Bank Organization Committee, intrusted with the task of launching the reserve banks and selecting reserve districts and cities. He has been talked of among bankers as a probable member of the board and several members of Congress say they would not be surprised to see his name in the list, and possibly at the head of it. If appointed he would, of course, have to resign his place in the Cabinet.

Secretary Houston said today he did not plan to resign from the Cabinet to become a member of the board.

Among other prominent men mentioned for places on the board are: Louis Warburg of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., New York; James G. Cannon of the Fourth National Bank of New York and George M. Reynolds of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago.

CHARTER TO BAR COMMITTEEMEN FROM CITY JOBS

Freeholders Adopt Provision Aimed to Destroy Power of Political Boss.

The Board of Freeholders Monday night took another step toward destroying the power of the political boss in municipal affairs by voting unanimously to include in the proposed new city charter provisions prohibiting members of party committees from holding elective or appointive offices in the city government and members of the legislative body from running for another office during the term for which they were elected.

The board already has adopted the merit system and written this chapter of the charter. It is believed by members of the board that the merit system, and the provision prohibiting political committeemen from holding city jobs, will break up the power of the political bosses who have manipulated municipal affairs in such a way that they got the best jobs for committeemen and other party workers.

Each committeeman has a score or more of his ward workers on the payroll in different city departments. The object of the Freeholders is to prevent a waste of public money by destroying the present political system that pays rewards for party service, and at the same time cripples the public service by giving inefficient men municipal jobs.

Louis P. Aloe, formerly a member of the Republican City Committee, who has practical knowledge of the inside workings of political organizations, made the motions for the adoption of the two provisions accepted Monday night. Aloe said he knew he would "catch hell" from the boys, but added that he knew he was right in advocating a plan to prevent party committeemen from holding municipal offices. Every member of the Board of Freeholders voted for the two propositions brought up by Aloe.

The board also determined that the official name of this city shall be "St. Louis," and not "Saint Louis." Secretary Wilbur B. Jones presented a statement to the board, which showed that the city has been struggling along for nearly 100 years first as "Saint Louis" and then as "St. Louis." In the territorial days the town was known as St. Louis, and in 1803 territorial laws were passed authorizing the incorporation of the town of "St. Louis."

But when the city was incorporated Dec. 2, 1820, it was incorporated as the "City of Saint Louis." In 1833 legislative acts were passed referring to the city as "St. Louis," but the city became officially "St. Louis" in 1839 when a new charter was adopted. It has been continued as St. Louis since that time.

"St. Louis" Finally Decided Upon.

The proposed charter of 1910 referred to the city as Saint Louis. Chairman McDonald of the board said that if the 1910 charter had been adopted there would have been no city to apply it to. Thomas J. Rowe insisted that the Missouri Constitution fixed the name of the city as St. Louis, and the board had no power to change the name. The vote for "St. Louis" was unanimous.

TOWN THAT GREW CHESTY TO SELL CANE T. R. GAVE IT

Roosevelt (L. I.) Citizens Hope to End War-Like Spirit by Auction of Gift.

ONCE PLACID VILLAGE

School Board and Fire Department Nearly Disrupted by Use of Short and Ugly Word.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The elaborately carved, gold-plated cane which Col. Theodore Roosevelt presented about six months ago to the Board of Trade of Roosevelt, L. I., is going to be auctioned off soon to the highest bidder and many of the town, not ashamed to be classed among "those who live softly" are heaving sighs of relief out of all proportion to the size of the cane.

Once upon a time, long years ago, the town of Roosevelt was but the plebeian appellation of Rum Point. But as the town advanced in population and refinement, the discontent with this coarse name grew, until finally it was abolished and Rum Point became Greenwich Village.

But, if Rum Point was too coarse, Greenwich Village was too refined for some elements of the population. These complained that the name lacked snap and ginger. So, after many conferences, it came to pass in the reign of Theodore I that the city fathers broke a bottle of milk upon Greenwich Village and rechristened it Roosevelt, achieving mention thereby in the journals of the era.

Charles Edwards, the local poet laureate, who is known, even as far as Brooklyn, for his literary achievements, and who was once an editor, wrote a poem about the new name that was generally regarded as a masterpiece. It was called the "Undesired Village" and it hinted that that strange thing might follow the strange name.

Those predictions have been fulfilled, in the opinion of many of the quieter residents of Roosevelt. It is the general opinion in neighboring villages and all the country round that from the change of name dates a mysterious change that came over the spirit of the Rooseveltians' dream.

Gradually, it is said, a certain war-like tones and things became observable among Roosevelt residents. Eyeglasses multiplied in the streets at a rate hitherto unknown, and smiles displayed rows of dental facilities that previously were hidden modestly behind lips. Had it stopped there all might have been well, but it is sorrowfully whispered that certain short and ugly words began to disturb the placid atmosphere at the most unexpected moments.

But when the authentic T. R. cane arrived, and was placed on view in the town hall, the change in the tone of the community became too obvious to be ignored. Milk bills, too rapidly and even a little brashly—only on physician prescriptions—were occasionally impugned, by those who had always clung to good old Medford rum.

Now in School Board.

Then, one day, a row broke out in the school board, over the subject of "Maledictor of great wealth," "Undesirable citizen," and branding of flats. Lifelong friends were heard to put each other in the Annapolis Club.

The contagion spread. The local fire department was next disrupted by some who called their leaders "mollycoddlers." From day to day have come nothing but reports of more dissension, until at last moved by the popular clamor for peace, the Board of Trade has taken action. The historic cane will be auctioned off to the highest bidder and it is hoped that life in Roosevelt will resume something of its former tenor.

WHITE HOUSE COOK,

NEGRESS, GETS MARRIED

Emulates Miss Jessie Wilson,

but Will Return Soon to Her Job.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Although they muffled the wedding bells at the White House following the marriage of the President's daughter, Miss Jessie Wilson, to Francis B. Sayre, one of the attaches decided to follow the footsteps of Miss Wilson and enter the realm of matrimony. The attaché was a plant cook at the White House, Alice Howard, a negress and a widow.

There is more or less mystery about Alice's marriage. According to the record of the clerk's office at the city hall, Alice was married to a William Clements, a negro, and a first-class stone-mason. This is all that is known of the marriage, as Alice obtained leave of absence and the other domestic help at the White House don't know whether she has gone to Alexandria, Va., or Georgetown, D. C. They say she will return to the White House the last of this week.

ACTING CHANCELLOR ILL

Frederic A. Hall of 5846 Julian avenue, acting chancellor of Washington University, is in the University Hospital at 51 North Jefferson avenue, recovering from an operation for hernia, which was performed Monday. It was stated at the hospital Tuesday morning that he probably would be able to leave in 10 days.

His condition will keep him from attending the funeral of Prof. Calvin M. Woodward, his former colleague in the university. He knew of Woodward's illness when he submitted to the operation, but was not told until Tuesday of Woodward's death.

Socialists Glad Vincent Astor Won't Aid Cause With Millions

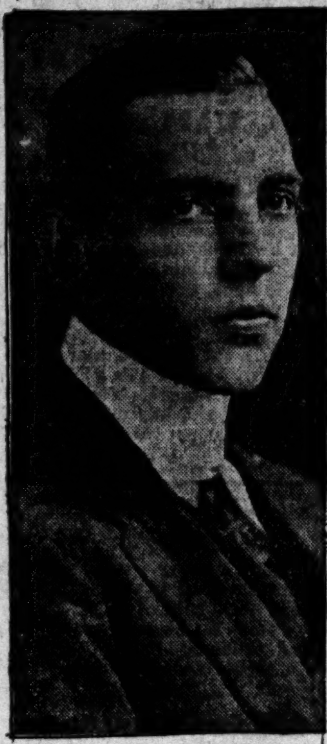

Sinclair's Suggestion "Fantastic"

Party Leaders Look Upon Novelist's Letter to Wealthiest Bachelor in Country as Due to "Too Much Fiction"—Astor Gives His Views, Which Union Men Uphold.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The 24-arat Socialists of New York signed in relief when they read that Vincent Astor, the wealthiest bachelor in the United States, had declined to "come across" with a few millions at the suggestion of Upton Sinclair.

The three most prominent Socialists in the city expressed the opinion that Sinclair, in his letter to Astor, had been led far afield through his superabundant enthusiasm in the cause of Socialism. Morris Hilquit, probably the most prominent Socialist in the city, when asked for his opinion of the appeal made by Sinclair to Astor to join the Socialist ranks, said:

"Mr. Sinclair is an ardent Socialist and a writer of fiction. I am of the opinion that his Socialism suffers from too much fiction and that his fiction suffers from too much Socialism. In other words, his idea that Socialism should appeal to multimillionaires for aid is fantastic and not the policy of the sober-minded Socialists, who do not expect Socialism to be realized through philanthropic and well-intending men of wealth.

World Check Socialism.
"If Mr. Astor should conclude to devote a few of his many millions to the cause of Socialism, I would consider it the greatest calamity Socialism could suffer. Such a gift certainly would tend to check the growth of the Socialist movement. So far Socialism has developed on its own resources. Barring those of an occasional man or woman of means, the contributions to the Socialist cause have been in dribbles. This has been the main moral strength of the Socialist cause. Subsidized by such contributions as Mr. Sinclair suggests to Mr. Astor, Socialism would lose its character. We have contended that the base of the church is its subservience to wealthy contributors. Socialism should not lay itself subject to the same criticism."

Algeron Lee, director of the Rand School of Socialism, said:
"When I first saw Sinclair's letter I thought it foolish. It would have been just as sensible for an abolitionist before the Civil War to appeal to some Southern planter to abolish slavery. Mr. Astor has never known what it is to lie awake at night, thinking 'how to get food for the next week for himself and family. The problems of wages, 'overwork' and unemployment are purely theoretical with him."

Union Men as Socialists.
"Mr. Astor thinks everything will come out all right in the end, and I think so, too, but with a difference. The working people are coming to know their rights and their hours and will solve their problems for themselves. When Mr. Astor says that none of the labor leaders he knows favors Socialism, he indicates that he does not know what is going on among the rank and file of union labor men. It is true that many of the old-time leaders are opposed to Socialism, but recent events show that more than one-quarter of the union men in the country are Socialists."

"The improvement in the condition of working men and women has been won through the efforts of the working people themselves, organized in trades unions. If they had waited for favors to be handed down to them their condition today would be worse than formerly."

Julius Gerber, secretary of the Socialist party of New York, said: "In my opinion, the Sinclair letter to Vincent Astor was foolish. While Sinclair is a Socialist, it is probable that in this matter his romantic idea as a fictionist ran away with him."

But men prominent in organized labor upheld the opinions of Astor. Martin J. Connelly, of the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Union said: "Mr. Astor seems to recognize the fact that if the working people do not help themselves, nobody will help them, and he shows by statistics what he has done to improve their condition."

Duncan Carwell, secretary of the New York local of the International Alliance of Sheet Metal Workers, said: "Any workingman who does not do something to improve himself is a fool, and Mr. Astor seems to recognize this fact. It is not by revolution that the lasting benefits are achieved."

Samuel Harris of the executive board of the United Neckwear Cutters' Union said: "I agree with Mr. Astor that working people are slowly making progress; but there is one drawback, and that is the problem of unemployment. This eventually will be solved by a reduction in the working hours. It is a sign of the times when a millionaire like Mr. Astor entertains such progressive views."

which your letter refers. I have had the benefit of your experience, and I believe myself somewhat familiar with their views and their general policies.

"It is not overstating the matter to say that not one of those members of the labor organizations whom I have met accepts your philosophy as a cure for the evils which we all recognize and deplore. On the contrary, they reject as fallacious and impracticable the program of the Socialist party in whose interest you speak. This program, boiled down as I gather it from the Socialist papers, magazines and books that I have had

Give Your Blood A GOOD Searching Bath

An astonishing record of serious blood poisoning is daily brought to our attention. And most if not all these conditions could be averted were the blood primed, toned and purified in advance by that wonderful remedy known everywhere as S. S. S. Few people realize how quickly the system becomes infected with the acids and ferments from undigested food, constipation and inactive kidneys.

The symptoms of fever, thirst, excitability, dry skin followed by rash, and many indications are often wrongly diagnosed as Ptoimaine poisoning. Many people who act hastily from violent temper are simply sufferers from the effects of poisoned blood, produced by faulty elimination. But by far the greatest peril is the daily danger from bruises, cuts, sores, scratches, a rusty nail, and venereal poisoning.

The medicinal properties of S. S. S. are relatively as essential to well balanced health as are the nutritive properties of the meat, grain, fats and sugars of our daily food. And if you will keep this fact in mind and get your blood under the dominating influence of S. S. S. you will not only drive out these impurities that cause the skin diseases, Rheumatism, Pimples, Boils and the acrid blood, but you will feel anew the thrill of health that can come only from a purified blood stream.

Do not accept anything else in place of S. S. S.; pay no attention to the "good" claims of those who would sacrifice your health to make an extra profit. S. S. S. contains no minerals, no crude drugs, nothing but the most beneficial botanical materials. Be sure and get S. S. S. and avoid disappointment. MUSEUM BARS QUEEN

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Because she refused to give up her umbrella, the Queen of England was refused admittance to Norwich Castle Museum yesterday. Queen Mary was accompanied by the Bishop of Norwich. As it was a purely private visit, notification had not been given. The attendant failing to recognize the Queen, stubbornly refused to admit her with the umbrella, which she, with equal stubbornness, refused to surrender. The Bishop disclosed the identity of the royal visitor, profuse apologies followed and the Queen entered, bearing her umbrella in triumph. Mr. Reader, do you want the biggest catalogue of room vacancies in St. Louis today? Read the Post-Dispatch Want Ads of Rooms and Board.

MOVIES' EXHIBIT FOR VEHICLE AND HARDWARE MEN

Convention Delegates Will Be Shown Manufacturing Processes of Goods They Sell.

G. A. Pauly, chairman of the Show Committee of the Missouri Retail Hardware Dealers' Association and the Mississippi Valley Implement and Vehicle Dealers' Association, has arranged a novel program for entertainment of delegates to the annual convention to be held at the Coliseum, Jan. 21, 22 and 23. The hardware and implements merchants will be shown the various stages of manufacture of their wares by means of motion pictures, supplemented by talks. The speakers will tell the cost of mining the ore, the cost of manufacturing, the jobbing price and the retail price of the finished products.

1400 Buyers Expected.
The managers of the convention have received more than 1000 acceptances from hardware merchants throughout the State and 400 acceptances from implement and vehicle dealers in Missouri and Illinois, which insures the coming of 1400 buyers to the St. Louis market during the week of the convention.

The Missouri Hardware Association and the Mississippi Valley Implement Association always hold a joint convention. The sessions will be held in the lecture hall of the Coliseum. The exhibits will be open from 9 o'clock in the morning until 10:30 o'clock at night. There will be a band concert every evening.

The women of the convention will be entertained with automobile rides through the city, in theater parties and shopping tours. The hostesses will be the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Convention Bureau and the Ladies' Committee from the St. Louis Implement, Vehicle and Hardware Association.

Friday evening the St. Louis Implement, Vehicle and Hardware Association will entertain the delegates of the Mississippi Valley Implement and Vehicle Association at a banquet at the Planters.

C. A. Ireland to Speak.
The implement and vehicle merchants report that farmers are now purchasing more and better machinery and implements.

Among the speakers at the joint convention will be Charles A. Ireland of Iowa, Mich., president of the National Hardware Association; Mayor Henry Kiel and A. L. Shapleigh, president of the Business Men's League.

The exhibits this year will be large and more comprehensive than those of last year. They will be displayed on the Coliseum arena floor and will include practically every article to be found in a hardware and implement store.

ALLEGED SLAYER OF 4 ADMITS GIVING WIFE FEVER GERMS

German on Trial Is Accused of Poisoning One Wife, 2 Children and His Father.

By Associated Press.
FRANKFORT-ON-THE-MAIN, Jan. 12.—The plea of "not guilty" was entered today by Carl Hopf, drugist and fencing master, when brought up for trial charged with killing his two children, his father and his first wife by administering poison and with attempting to commit similar crimes on his second and third wives and another person.

The accused admitted today that he had given a poisonous drug to his three wives, ostensibly as a means of improving their looks. To his third wife he had also given fever germs, but she escaped death owing to the vigilance of her doctor.

The three women had been insured by the prisoner for $500, $750 and $25,000 respectively, and each of them fell seriously ill within a year after her marriage.

Hopf gave various explanations for the presence of the poison in the bodies of his victims. His wives, he said, had taken it as an ingredient in a beauty compound and he had injected the drug into the bodies of his children to embalm them.

Germs found in possession of the prisoner included typhoid, cholera, puerperal fever and tuberculosis.

Society

SIR and Lady Wilfrid Peek, the latter formerly Miss Edwina Thornburg, were at the Buckingham Hotel Tuesday, the guests of Lady Peek's mother, Mrs. William C. Stribling. They arrived in St. Louis Monday evening, having come from their home in England. They were met at Union Station by Lady Peek's mother and stepfather and by her sister, Mrs. John H. Holliday.

Sir Wilfrid's younger brother, Granville Peek, will join the party here, next week, in time to be present at the Lambert-Turner wedding, and then will go with them to Pasadena, Cal.

Lady Peek, on her arrival, wore a smart traveling suit of dark blue material, cut in the latest approved English fashion, and carried luxurious furs. The Peeks will remain at Pasadena with the Striblings two months, returning to St. Louis with them before sailing for home in the spring. While in the city a number of informal luncheons and dinners will be given in their honor.

SOCIETY will divide its attention Tuesday evening between the dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pittsman for their debutante daughter, Miss Louise Pittsman, at the Woman's Club, and the concert for the benefit of the Teachers' Fellowship Home fund by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, at the Odeon.

The first affair will interest the debutante set, the second will bring out one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the season. The soloists will be Mrs. A. I. Epstein and Hugo Oik, concertmaster of the orchestra, and one of Zach's programs will be given. The object of the organization fund is to build a clubhouse. There is a long list of boxholders and the advance reservations assure a brilliant audience.

Mrs. Henry S. Turner of 4867 Berlin avenue and her daughter, Miss Marion Turner, have returned from a brief shopping trip to New York. Miss Turner's marriage, Jan. 24, to J. D. Wooster Lambert will be one of the most important nuptial events of the year.

Mrs. Allen Pinkerton of New York arrived Monday afternoon to visit her sister, Mrs. De Courcy Lindsey and Dr. Lindsey of 4661 Laclede avenue. Mrs. Pinkerton formerly was Miss Frances Woodworth and lived in St. Louis for several years.

Will Open Big Hotel.
Owing to the many applications for accommodations at Hot Springs, Ark., the big Eastman Hotel will open on Jan. 20, two weeks earlier than usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Spicer, formerly of this city, are visiting here for a few days on their return from the East and are stopping at the West End Hotel.

The Liederkreis Club has sent out announcements of an informal dance in banquet hall Saturday evening.

Mrs. William A. McCandless of 5055 Westminster place, has returned from a visit to Hot Springs, Ark. Her daughter, Mrs. John Pocking Thomas Jr. and Mrs. Thomas, who have been there with her, also returned and will depart this week for their home in Brookline, Mass.

Miss Elsie Seansongood, daughter of Mrs. Louise Renard of 4865 Westminster place, and Dr. Llewellyn Sale were married at the Columbian Club Monday evening. The bridegroom's father, Rabbi Samuel Sale of Shaare-Emeth Temple, performed the ceremony. The bride's sister, Mrs. Isadore Grossman of Cleveland, and her cousin, Mrs. Walter Hamburger of Chicago, were matrons of honor, and Ashley Sale of Rector, Ark., the bridegroom's brother, was best man. A dinner followed the ceremony, after which Dr. Sale and his bride departed for their honeymoon trip in the South. Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Sale, who came here from Rector, Ark., for the wedding, will remain several days for a visit.

16 MASKED MEN DRIVE SUFFRAGIST FROM HOMESTEAD

Washington Woman Is Taken 12 Miles and Told Not to Return After House Is Burned.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Jan. 12.—Driven from her homestead, 12 miles from here, by a band of 16 masked men, Sunday night, Mrs. Margaret M. Ross, well-known Democratic politician, today sent an appeal to Gov. Ernest Lister for protection, and announced that she and her family would return to her home as soon as she receives assurances from the authorities that she would not be molested.

According to Mrs. Ross, the 16 men forced their way into the house, removed her and her two sons, and after setting fire to the place, drove them 12 miles and ordered them not to return under penalty of death.

The trouble began some time ago, when Mrs. Ross' right to the claim was denied. Her two sons were then accused of assaulting a neighbor for alleged slander of their mother, and leaving him for dead in the road. They were tried and convicted on an assault charge, but succeeded in getting a new trial. A bitter feud in the neighborhood resulted.

Mrs. Ross was Democratic candidate for State Representative from Chehalis County in the fall of 1912 and stumped the State in the interest of the Democratic ticket. She gained prominence in the campaign by making addresses which were bitter attacks on the personal habits and character of Theodore Roosevelt. The State Central Committee withdrew its endorsement and her campaign speeches were cut short.

Niece of Cardinal Appears with Magistrate Who Has Apartments
Hunted Over.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

ROME, Jan. 12.—In the contest that has arisen over the fortune left by Cardinal Rampolla, the arch priest of St. Peter's, Baron and Baroness Rampolla-Pezzano, the latter the Cardinal's sister, was arrayed on one side and Princess Altieri, wife of the Baroness' son, on the other.

Representatives of the Princess, with a law officer of the Vatican, arrived Monday at the sealed apartments of the dead Cardinal just as Baron Rampolla-Pezzano was about to take possession of the apartments in the name of his wife, as sole legatee. Magistrate Balsanzo stepped forward, saying dramatically: "In the name of the law, I forbid further proceedings until justice is satisfied. The court authorities have received from the Police Department such information as points to the possible suppression of a later will than that of 1889, and it is therefore necessary to take an inventory and search the house and to confront witnesses before giving effect to the will now under operation."

Chevalier Balsanzo then ordered his assistants to proceed with the search. All the desks and cabinets and most confidential papers and possessions of the Cardinal began to pass under their inspection, but no other will was found.

Cardinal Rampolla's valet, Giuseppe, was questioned about a box alleged to be missing and which is said to have contained watches and other jewelry of great value. He protested tearfully that, although he knew of the existence of such a box well, it disappeared the night the Cardinal died when he (the valet) was too engrossed in his duties and distraught with grief, especially to guard the box.

In the will of 1889, claimed to be the only one in existence, all the other beneficiaries are named and the Baroness Rampolla-Pezzano inherits the entire estate said to be worth $200,000. But Princess Altieri, whose husband is the Duke of Cambrillo, the Baroness' son, declares Cardinal Rampolla told her he had made a later will in which the Princess' two children appeared as beneficiaries. Cardinal Rampolla had disinherited the Duke and the Princess left her husband on account of his dissolute habits.

The Pope has appointed Cardinal Merry del Val archbishop of St. Peter's to succeed the late Cardinal Rampolla, according to the official announcement made last night.

A deputation of the canons of St. Peter's was received in audience by the Pope in the afternoon and discussed with the Pontiff the appointment of the new archbishop.

Miller, Detroit News; C. E. Stewart, Birmingham Age-Herald; Leroy T. Vernon, Chicago News; John Spure, New York Globe; George G. Hill, New York Tribune; Jerry A. Matthews, New York Sun, and R. V. Oulahan, New York Times.

Bargain Seekers Take Advantage of January Sale.

Bargain seekers gathered early again Tuesday at the Schaper Bros. department store, where the January markdown sale is in progress. The sale was begun Monday and from the time the store opened until near the closing hours eager shoppers continued to crowd the store. The sale will be continued for several days.

In announcing this sale the advertisements declare that every piece of merchandise in each department has been marked down. The reason given for cutting prices is to rid the establishment of the entire present stock, so as to make room for the spring goods that buyers in the East are daily shipping to the firm.

Salvation Army Changes.
Ensign and Mrs. Louis Carr, who have been in charge of the Salvation Army Corps No. 1 at 1413 Franklin avenue, have been transferred to the East St. Louis branch and will be succeeded by Ensign and Mrs. Edgar Harris of Sedalia. Officers at the branch at 1115 South Broadway will also be changed. Capt. and Mrs. Sharlow going from there to Litchfield, Ill., while Capt. Vera Nelligan of East St. Louis and Lieut. Emma Baker, just graduated from the Chicago Training College, will be their successors.

Driver of Auto Is Exonerated.
At a preliminary hearing, Monday, William D. Costello was exonerated by Judge Clark of the charge of driving away in his automobile and leaving Theodore Grosberg, whom he had injured at Eighteenth and Carr streets on Dec. 23.

Lack of evidence was the cause of dismissal.

Madam—If you are looking for the greatest values in Coats, Suits, Dresses, Costumes or Evening Wraps that you ever bought, attend this great event—

Important Notice

During this sale no goods will be accepted for refund or credit—every sale must be absolute—our experience has been that the wonderful bargains tempt customers to select more garments than they can possibly want.

EVERY Suit, Coat, Dress and Evening Wrap in our entire establishment, is included without reserve at $15, and there are a number of new Spring Suits and new Spring Dresses which have recently arrived—of course, they are all being sold at $15, because when we say "Choice of the House" it means that not a single Outergarment is excepted.

Choice of $15.00 the House.

THIS sale is recognized from a value-giving standpoint, as being the greatest of the season.

IT is genuine—we mean every word when we say "Come and choose any Coat, Dress, Suit, Costume or Evening Wrap in our entire stock, whether the former price was $25, $30, $35, $40, $45, $50 or more, and pay but $15."

JUST ask anyone who was here yesterday about this sale—they will tell you more in a minute than we could print in a whole page. You would realize by their enthusiasm how great the values are.

IT is rather difficult to describe such enthusiasm. We would like to picture to you the eagerness with which the customers bought—their expressed pleasure and satisfaction indicated their realization that they were getting the most wonderful values, and aside from the few very high price garments, the same values are to be found tomorrow.

WE believe that the "word of mouth" advertising that this event has received has permeated throughout every section of this city, and the mere announcement that practically the same saving opportunities exist as on the first day, and that you can still choose from wonderful selections, will be sufficient to make tomorrow's sale just as enthusiastic and just as important as the first day.

YOU must remember that the big bulk of our stock is made up of garments priced from $25 upward to $60—there is an immense range of styles and materials in Coats, Suits, Dresses, Costumes and Evening Wraps, and it would take many a day's selling like yesterday's to deplete this stock.

OF course, you must not wait too long—we advise you to come tomorrow.

HANDLAN'S PARK BOUGHT BY 'FEDS,' CHICAGO REPORTS

Consideration Involved Said to Be $250,000—Owner Denies Report.

CONFIRMATION LACKING
President of Local Club Said Tuesday Morning Deal Was Blocked.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federal, was notified by long-distance telephone from St. Louis today that Otto Stifel, the St. Louis Federal club owner, had purchased Handlan's Park, in St. Louis, for $250,000 and would at once proceed to remodel it in readiness for the Federal season.

The information was telephoned by Charles Weeshman and W. M. Walker, two of the backers of the Chicago Federal. Tinker declared that the Federal would be invited before next fall to enter the ranks of organized baseball.

Hoppe Nervous, Peterson Gives Him Close Game

Charles Peterson's sportsmanship in ordering a new set of ivories after Champion Willie Hoppe had repeatedly fallen down on comparatively easy shots early in their match Monday evening, eventually cost him the bacon, 400-382. The decision was reached after 21 innings, Hoppe having an average of 39.1, while Peterson had the bulkhead high run, a sequence of 21.

Schuyler P. Britton Is Re-Elected President of Cardinal Ball Club

The annual election of officers of the St. Louis (National League) baseball club was held Tuesday morning and resulted as follows: Schuyler P. Britton, president; Mrs. Helene Hathaway Robinson, vice-president; Herman D. Beekamp, treasurer; W. G. Schofield, secretary.

Federal League Sure to Open in April. Post-Dispatch Investigators Believe St. Louis Has Made the Least Progress of All Clubs

Failure of Local Organization to Land a Park Site Has Prevented the Promoters Here From Going Ahead With Re-Incorporation.

By W. J. O'Connor.

BECAUSE of their inability to purchase a park site the St. Louis Federal League club probably is the least active of any in the league, just now. Assurance is given, however, that St. Louis will be in the new league with as representative a front as that of any other city.

The St. Louis club was incorporated last year for a small amount, but the capital stock will be boosted just as soon as a park is purchased and the local venture will then be incorporated for at least $100,000, according to the promoters.

Joe Tinker is the Chicago manager and he already has signed Bill Killefer, a catcher, and Addison Brennan, a pitcher of the Phillies, King Cole, a pitcher of the Yankees, and Gene Packard, a pitcher of the Red Sox.

Following are reports of the Federal League conditions in other cities as found by Post-Dispatch investigators:

BUFFALO.
By E. H. McBRIDE, Sporting Editor of the Buffalo Enquirer.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 12. The Federal League club in Buffalo appears to be an assured success. President Walter Mullen, a big real estate dealer of this city, in an interview with a Post-Dispatch reporter said today:

Unbiased Critics Tell How Far "Feds" Have Matured Their Plans

STUDIED silence, except in one or two instances, has prevented any serious leakage in the plans and progress of the Federal League promoters.

There is still more or less mystery connected with each club, except perhaps the Chicago team. Fans everywhere are wondering what advance is being made by clubs of the new league and whether all the teams of the circuit are certain to remain in.

The Post-Dispatch prints herewith a brief summary of the situation in each city, written in each case by a recognized baseball authority who is unhampered by affiliation with either of the old leagues.

Unmated also that grounds would be built in the Niagara River, midway between Buffalo and Niagara Falls, where Sunday ball would be played.

KANSAS CITY.
By GEORGE B. LONGAN, Kansas City Star and Representative of the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 12. The Packers, Kansas City's Federal League club, will use the Gordon and Koppel Athletic Field next season, as last year.

The field has commodious stands, seating 10,000 persons. The field was built in 1910 with the expectation that the Missouri-Kansas football game would be played there annually.

George Stovall will manage the club and he said to be signing players on the coast now.

BALTIMORE.
By STAR MATTHEWS, Baseball Editor of the Baltimore Sun.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 12. The Federal League is firmly entrenched in Baltimore, the fans realizing it is the one best chance to put the city back in major baseball.

NOT ONE CARDINAL PLAYER IS SIGNED TO 1914 CONTRACT

Miller Huggins, However, Has Assurances From Sallee and Miller.

ROBINSON AGREES TO MILLER HUGGINS' TERMS

"LEFTY" ROBINSON, one of the Pittsburgh players who came to St. Louis in the deal for Koney, Mowrey and Harmon, has escaped the clutches of the Federal League boss.

According to Miller Huggins, manager of the Cardinals, he said the clever southpaw pitcher reached terms today and a signed contract will soon be in the safe of the National League club here.

Robinson had a good record with the Pittsburgh club and is considered one of the coming left-handers of the league. Jack Miller and Harry Sallee are also in this "to sign," according to Huggins.

Manager Miller Huggins of the Cardinals is busier than a bird dog these days, trying, by desperate means, to sign his players before they all hopscotch to the Federal preserve.

INDIANAPOLIS.
By G. E. CRAWFORD, A Special Correspondent for the Post-Dispatch.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 12. HERE is really a very good prospect for the Federal League club in this city the coming season.

PITTSBURGH.
From a Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12. NO one has been able to discover as yet just what progress has been made by the Federal League even in this city. The local club has been incorporated with a capital stock of $50,000.

WRAV'S COLUMN

In Sight of Two Titles. MIKE GIBBONS of St. Paul, whose star has waxed and waned and waxed again, is in sight of two boxing titles, as a result of his victory Monday night over Bob McAllister.

Mike is an anomalous fighter, as regards weight classification. For his bout with McAllister, Monday, he scaled 153 pounds. This is 5½ pounds below the now accepted middleweight maximum, and 7½ pounds over the modern welterweight figure.

Mike can come down to the 145-pound limit, his weight forfeits indicate.

Trouble for McFarland.
McFARLAND, in flying at Mike Gibbons' game, could surely not have studied the performance of Gibbons closely. Mike is supposed to be a clever lad, but his record for the past three years shows that the majority of his bouts, the no-decision affairs left out, have resulted in knockouts.

Middleweight Game Harder.
BY stopping McAllister, Gibbons showed his punch against an extremely clever man and one heavier than himself. He should be at no disadvantage in the immediate vicinity he will visit in person.

Sure of Slim Sallee.
However, Huggins says he has absolute assurance that Harry Sallee and Jack Miller will swing in line soon, while he has asked Willie Donk to come to St. Louis this week. Oakes, Peritt and many of the recruits live so far away that Huggins will be forced to wait several days before he can get news as to their plans for the coming season, while he will be unable to get in touch with Lee Magee, Ivey Wingo and Steve Evans until March 1, when the Sox-Giants tour terminates at Battery Park.

Dooins' Club Wrecked.
The Federal League has virtually wrecked the Philadelphia club. The loss of three stars like Killefer, Knabe and Brennan is a staggering blow, while there still is a chance that Sherwood Magee and Hans Lobert may be signed. So far, though, it has been definitely established that only Killefer, Knabe and Brennan have signed with the Feds. Other names have not been made public, and there's no way of telling who the "jumpers" are.

"Not Guilty" Is Jury Verdict in Willard's Trial
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 12.—Jesse Willard, the heavyweight pugilist, on trial charged with prize fighting, was acquitted by a jury today, after an all-night deliberation. The charge was the result of the death of John Young, after a bout at the Vernon Arena with Willard, Aug. 22.

That man Ebbets is an out-and-out spendthrift. He's going to spend 2 cents for postage and mail a contract to Joe Tinker.

Solsberg vs. Hennessy.
Little Johnny Solsberg may be underestimated Francis Hennessy, the local bantamweight, whom he fights at the Future City Athletic Club tonight. Johnny is not taking Francis seriously, owing to the defeat of Hennessy by Archie McLeod, a lad whom Solsberg put away in two rounds.

Overlooking the Cause.
EASTERN tennis supporters, jealous of the fame California has won in the past year by supplying most of the talent for doubles, singles and women's championship tournaments, have announced a plan for getting into the class of the coast athletes. To this end a wholesale development of junior talent is planned.

What's an Amateur?
DWIGHT DAVIS of St. Louis, donor of the Davis international tennis trophy, was one of the committee responsible for this new definition of an amateur. To be adopted Feb. 5, at the next meeting of the national tennis association.

STEALS $10,000, "BLOWS HIMSELF" FOR A DAY, CAUGHT

Fort Smith Express Clerk Giggles
as He Tells His Experience in St. Louis.

BOUGHT TWO "BIG MEALS"
Clayton Saxty, 22, Purchased
Motor Cycle, Rode Four Miles, and Abandoned It.

From dining-car chicken to police-station sausage seemed an awful drop, but Clayton M. Saxty Tuesday accepted the change in his bill of fare with a philosophical shrug. His plans to spend $10,000 for salted peanuts, doughnuts and fruit went astray when two policemen nabbed him at Union Station Monday night.

Saxty, who is 22 years old, and who until Sunday was never outside the city limits of Fort Smith, Ark., went "money mad" when a package containing nearly $10,000 came into his possession. He was employed as "on-board clerk" by the Wells Fargo Express Co. at Fort Smith and the money was entrusted to him for shipment to the Jenny Lind Mining Co., a Fort Smith corporation. He stole the money. He told the police this story.

With the small fortune in his pockets Saxty went home, tossed $4000 into a clothes closet where his wife would be sure to find it, kissed his seven-month-old baby good-by and said he had to do some night work. Mrs. Saxty did not believe him and refused to kiss him as he departed.

Then Saxty purchased a motorcycle and rode to Van Buren, four miles away. He admitted to himself that even the price of the machine was rather steep for such a small fortune, but he argued he had plenty of money. At Van Buren he cast the motorcycle aside and caught a train for St. Louis. He did not engage a sleeper because he wanted to remain awake and take care of his money. He picked out St. Louis as his destination because it was the biggest city he could think of.

When the porter issued the last call for breakfast Monday morning Saxty, his pockets bulging with money, sauntered into the dining room car and carelessly scanned the menu. Veal cutlets, fried eggs, buckwheat cakes and chicken casserole caught his eye and he ordered so much that the waiter became confused.

After reaching the city at 1 p. m. he went in search of the biggest restaurant. A white-fronted eating house on Market street fascinated him and he went in. When the waitress brought the bill of fare he waved it aside and told her to bring him the best in the house. When the meal was served he realized the edge had been taken from his appetite by the late breakfast on the train and, after sipping the coffee, he paid his check and went out.

Never had he had more than $10 a month and $1 a week was his spending money for him. When he emerged from the restaurant he stopped for a minute to plan a trip around town and then dashed into a fruit store.

With a big bag of bananas he started for a moving picture show. He passed several places whose signs announced a 5-cent admission. He kept going, until he found a 10-cent show. He was signing all the time and eating bananas.

After the show he invested a nickel in salted peanuts and walked up Broadway, his pockets still bulging with the stolen wealth. A show window with bargain price signs attracted his attention and he purchased a "daddy" pattern of tan with red and green stripes and pink and purple dots. It cost him just $1.50. He changed his clothes at the store, but forgot to remove the tag. On Morgan street he purchased doughnuts and munches them sparingly as he started back to Union Station. He treated himself to a soda water in a drug store.

At the station he concluded he had seen enough of St. Louis, and purchased a ticket for Chicago. He was packing the midway, stopping now and then to buy chewing gum and more salted peanuts. When William V. Brown, a traveling inspector for the Wells Fargo company, alighted him. Brown had been instructed to watch for the young absconder, and when he alighted Saxty, Saxty remembered having seen the inspector at Fort Smith.

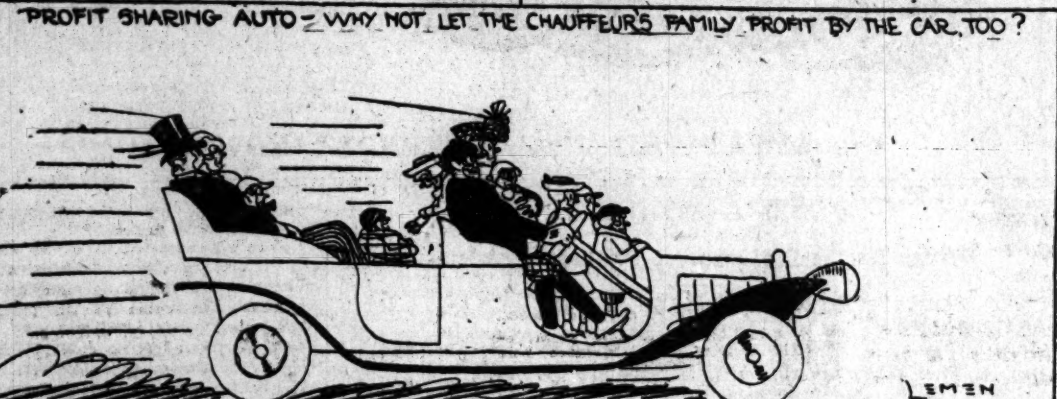

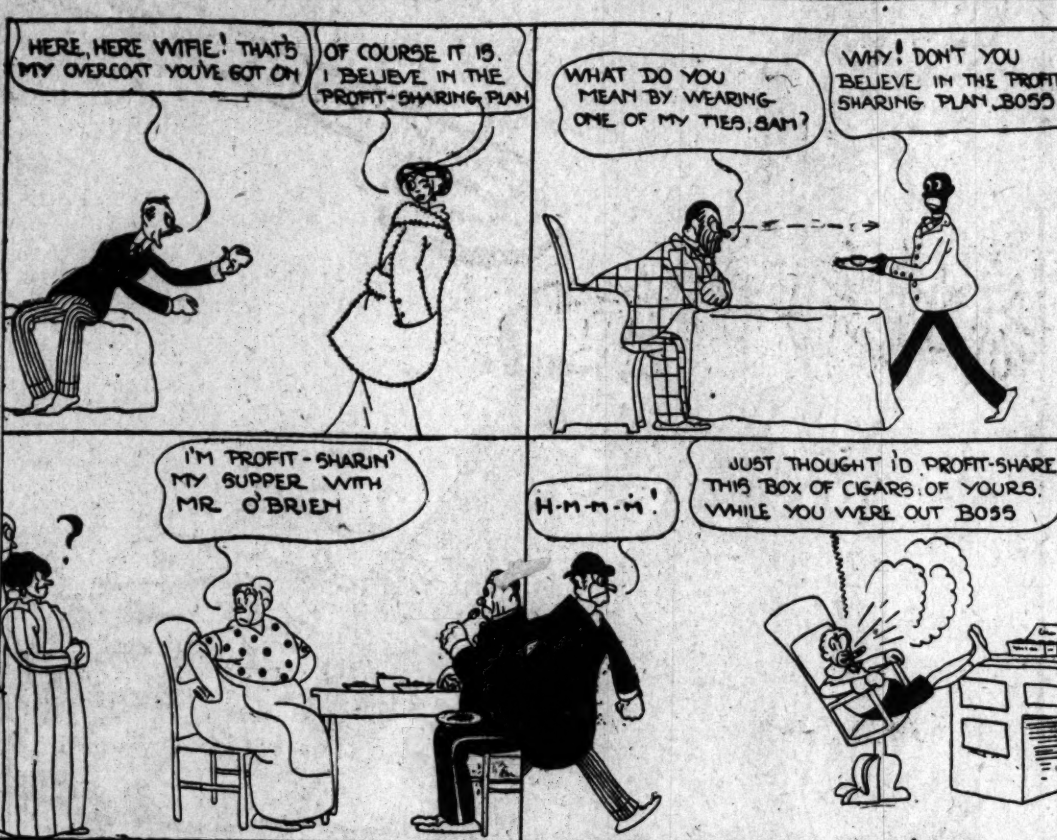

"Want to introduce you to a couple of friends," said Brown, leading the way down the midway.

"Guess you're going to turn me over to the police," replied Saxty with a shrug.

Saxty giggled as he related his experiences Tuesday in the Central District holdover.

"Wonder what they'll do with me," he said. "Reckon I'll go pretty hard, won't I?"

MEXICO DECIDES TO DEFAULT BOND INTEREST PAYMENT

Council Reaches Conclusion

Nations Will Be Notified.

By Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12.—The Mexican Government will default in the payment of the semi-annual interest on the bonds of the internal and external debt due this month, according to a decision reached at a cabinet council which lasted until midnight.

The decision of the council was announced by Querido Moreno, Mexican foreign minister, who declared he had been instructed to notify all foreign governments of the default.

Mexican Refugees Ready to Start 97-Mile March to Marfa, Tex.

PRESTID, Tex., Jan. 12.—The six Generals of the Mexican Federal army, 3000 fugitive soldiers and 1500 refugees, who were driven out of Ojinaga, Mexico, by Gen. Francisco Villa's rebel forces, are in readiness today for a four days' march, 97 miles, to Marfa, Tex. The soldiers will be interned at Fort Bliss, and guarded by the border patrol pending their final disposition by the War Department. Among the civilians are 197 women.

The whereabouts of Gen. Pascual Orozco and Ynes Salazar, commanders of Federal volunteers, who fled from Ojinaga with 700 cavalrymen is unknown to the rebels. The arrest of Rafael Flores, Orozco's secretary, on the road between Presidio and Marfa, gave rise to the belief that the General was on this side of the river.

Gen. Villa, who is in Ojinaga, has

Although there are hundreds of preparations advertised, there is only one that really stands out pre-eminent as a remedy for diseases of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest, for the reason that so many people say it has proved to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of even the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a physician's prescription for special diseases, which is not recommended for every thing.

GIRL FOR WHOM A LAME NEWSBOY GAVE LIFE, ELOPES

Miss Ethel Smith, Saved by Leg
Taken From Billy Rug's Skin,
Wets a Cigar Clerk.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Miss Ethel Smith of Gary, Ind., for whom Billy Rug, a lame newsboy, saved his life, eloped to Chicago yesterday with Leon M. Cline, a clerk in a cigar store in Gary. They were married here by a Justice of the Peace.

The romance marked the close of another one which was in full bloom when the explosion of a gasoline tank on a motor cycle burned her body so severely that her life was despaired of for a time.

She was saved only by extensive grafting of skin taken from the amputated leg of Billy Rug, who died soon afterward of pneumonia and the shock of the operation.

MAN FOUND DEAD WITH A POISON BOTTLE NEAR

J. M. Chapple, 50 years old, of Dayton, Ky., was found dead, Tuesday morning, in his room at 1817 North Broadway. A bottle was found which had contained oil of mustard, a poison. An autopsy will be held to determine whether death was due to natural causes.

Chapple had been rooming at the house for a week. He said he was from Evansville, Ind. He appeared to be well when he went to bed Monday night.

Letters were found in his pockets from his son, Frank, Dayton, Ky., who wrote that he and another son had sent Christmas cards to him, but that these had been returned because they had tinsel on them and could not pass through the mails. They informed him they were doing well and especially wished he was at home.

WRANGLES WITH POLICE FOR WHOM HE PHONED

James J. Barrett, Deputy State Labor Commissioner in St. Louis, got into a wrangle with Patrolmen Schaefer and Joyce of the Carr Street Station, Monday night, shortly after they entered his office at Sixteenth and Morgan streets, in response to his telephone request for two policemen.

Barrett told the patrolman he wanted them to arrest a man known as Steve, who had swindled 150 fellow Austrians out of $5 each under promise of obtaining employment for them in Cincinnati. His informant, he said, told him the alleged labor agent had worked the swindle in a saloon owned by R. M. Millorich, at 1638 Franklin avenue.

When the patrolman asked him if he had any description of Steve or knew where Steve could be found, Barrett became angry. Night Chief Gillaspay assigned two headquarters men to the case.

Mike Belake of 234 North Seventeenth street, told Barrett he was one of the men swindled.

HYPNOTIC COUNT IS PUT AWAY FOR LIFE FOR MURDER

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Jan. 12.—Count Bogdan Roniker, whose arrest for murder of his wife's brother, three years ago, caused a profound sensation and whose trial was marked by extraordinary incidents, was condemned today to hard labor in prison for 11 years and thereafter to perpetual exile in Siberia.

Roniker is a cousin of Countess Tarnowska, whose trial in Venice for murdering her husband lasted 100 days. After his arrest it was learned that he is also a cousin of Count de Lacey, who was implicated with Patchenko in another murder. Countess Tarnowska, de Lacey and Roniker are of Irish descent and were noted for eyes of strange fascinating power.

When Roniker married Miss Kryzhanovskiy in spite of her family's opposition, people said: "She has been hypnotized by those Celtic eyes of his." At Roniker's trial the court was packed every day with fashionably dressed women who loaded him with bouquets. Counsel fought duels with witnesses. When the verdict was expected, the streets had to be kept clear with troops. On going to his cell after conviction, Roniker found letters from more than 100 women, ready to marry him, for his wife had announced her intention of getting a divorce.

MISS EUGENIE
LADENBURG

Miss Eugenie May Ladenburg, Leader in Meadowbrook Hunt Club Set, Contracted Cold After Polo Games.

By Leased Wire from the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Miss Eugenie May Ladenburg's failure to appear during the late fall and winter in the affairs of the Meadowbrook Hunt Club, and in society was explained today when it was found that she was in St. Luke's Hospital, seriously ill as the result of a cold she contracted last summer.

There has been no society girl more conspicuous among the Hunt Club riders than Miss Ladenburg since she was a child, and since her debut in 1912 she was seen constantly in society here, in Newport and on Long Island until last fall. She was the leader of the Meadowbrook younger set.

in Open Air Since Infancy.
The last time Miss Ladenburg appeared socially was at the marriage of Devereux Millburn and Miss Nancy Steele in the fall. A series of house parties was given by her mother, Mrs. Emily Ladenburg, at their home at Westbury about Thanksgiving time, and then it was remarked that the athletic girl, who had known life in the open air since infancy, was not in good health.

Miss Ladenburg never appeared better than at the International polo games last summer. Later she went to Newport and there it is said she contracted the cold which continued through the early fall.

With her mother she returned to Westbury, Mrs. Ladenburg believing that open air and exercise would restore her to health. For a time Miss Ladenburg followed the hounds and engaged in drag hunts, but the cold could not be thrown off. On the advice of physicians Mrs. Ladenburg took her to Saratoga and placed her under the care of Dr. Trudeau. There was no marked improvement in the girl's condition and it became so grave Christmas week that it was decided to bring her here for treatment and expert advice.

The fact that Miss Ladenburg is suffering still from the cold has been kept secret from her friends. They have been told that mother and daughter are traveling in the West. The Ladenburg home at Westbury is closed.

Father Drowned at Sea.
Miss Ladenburg's father, Adolf Ladenburg, was drowned at sea nearly 19 years ago. He was returning from the Bahamas to New York on the steamship Niagara when he mysteriously disappeared. He is supposed to have been washed overboard.

Miss Ladenburg is 20 years old. When she is 21 she will come into an estate estimated at $10,000,000, left to her by her father.

Besides being a horsewoman of such ability that her only rival is her own mother, Miss Ladenburg has been an all-around athlete. She was one of the most expert fencers in the summer colony at Newport, her instructor once remarking that she possessed the best style of any of his younger pupils. She has been prominent, too, at the horse shows, especially those at Piping Rock and at the Casino at Newport.

When 12 years old she had a startling experience when riding on the estate at Westbury. She was dragged from her mount by a man who sprang from the bushes. A gardener happened to be near and the man fled. A guard then was placed about the estate.

Monday Night at St. Louis Theaters

Drawn for the Post-Dispatch
By MARGUERITE MARTYN

THE SANDMAN STORY
FOR TONIGHT
BY MRS. FAWCETT

In Which the Boss' Wife Has a Birthday, and Bill, With His Friend Izzy, Are Unexpected, but Welcome Guests.

By PAUL WEST.

Riverside Drive is an unknown region to Bill, but his faithful friend Izzy undertakes to act as guide, and they arrive at the boss' dazzling residence in time to be guests of honor at a party.

It was a fine old-fashioned party. The boss' wife was in the kitchen, and the boss was in the parlor. The boss' wife was a very nice woman, and the boss was a very nice man. They were both very kind to their guests. The boss' wife was a very nice woman, and the boss was a very nice man. They were both very kind to their guests.

By Marguerite Martyn

Monday is the night "they" go to the theater in St. Louis. The saving of Monday evening out of the social calendar and the foregoing of the playhouse of who's who in society, is a custom native St. Louisans long have accepted as a matter of course.

That Monday night audiences are different from other audiences of the week is a thing that does not fail to impress the stranger within our gates. The lights, the sounds, the color, the behavior, the whole atmosphere is, oh, quite different.

Why Monday should be "society night" at the theater. So long as the Theatre Trusts preside over the play-going of St. Louis and limit each company's performance to one week and agree upon Monday evening for each offering's premiere, of course "they" (fortune's favorites) are going to choose "opening night" as their own.

The intermissions afford opportunity for visiting, chatting and gossiping back and forth—opportunity rare enough in these hurry-scurry days, when "one's own smart little set" is so busy with its own doings, one finds little time for one's larger list of acquaintances. There is a very simple explanation of

Betty Vincent's Advice to Lovers

Wedding Presents.

G. writes: "Is it proper for me to give a wedding present to a girl for a year and a half. The friends who are soon to marry? I know my friend and his family well and have met his sister several times. Certainly, you may give her a wedding present."

The Difference.

W. O. writes: "What is the difference between love and infatuation? I should say that love is infatuation that lasts."

Discontented but Natural.

E. F. writes: "I paid attention to a girl for a year and a half. We then had a misunderstanding and I requested her to return my picture. Instead of doing so she tore it up. Was this proper?"

It was not polite, but the girl was probably too angry to restrain herself.

A. R. writes: "I am if and at a recent wedding I met a pretty girl of 18. Since then I have been constantly thinking of her. Please advise me how to stop, as I am too distracted to attend to my studies."

Simply make up your mind that you are too young for love affairs.

C. K. writes: "A man has been paying me attention for two years. Recently we have had several quarrels, and during the last one he struck me. Do you think it would be wise for me to marry him?"

I most certainly do not. I do not believe you could find happiness.

W. O. writes: "I am very much in love with a girl, but I have never had the courage to express any affection. Now I have heard that another man is paying her attentions. Will you advise me how to go about this matter?"

The simplest way is always the best—and don't wait too long.

J. B. writes: "Will you kindly let me know when a girl becomes a young woman?"

In social circles where the coming-out party is customary this function takes place at the age of 18. A girl of this age is usually considered a "young lady."

Epigrams of Disraeli

Edited by Louis N. Parker, Author of George Arliss' Play "Disraeli."

Youth is a blunder, manhood a struggle, old age a regret. The two greatest stimulants in the world are youth and debt. When the infant begins to walk it thinks it lives in strange times. We are famous for discovering the future when it had taken place.

The man who anticipates his century is persecuted when living and piffered when dead. We sometimes find that memory is as rare a quality as prediction.

The police in Cleveland, O., were notified that there was a gun fight going on in one section of the city. When they arrived there was nothing to be seen except the remains of a case of pop bottles whose contents had exploded.

Physician's Advice for Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, which is a sign of weakness and poor health. The cause is often a lack of proper nutrition and exercise. It is important to gain weight in a healthy way by eating a balanced diet and engaging in regular physical activity.

Praises This Remedy for Lung Trouble

Many people are led to believe that Lung Trouble is a disease which can only be cured by rest and medicine. However, there are many ways to improve lung health, including breathing exercises and a healthy diet.

Bowling Green, Ky., R. No. 4. "Gentlemen: The spring of 1913 I had a severe attack of lung trouble. I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried many remedies, but nothing helped. I then tried the 'Lung Remedy' and after a few days I began to feel better. After a month I was completely cured. I can now do all my work and am in good health. I highly recommend this remedy to all who suffer from lung trouble."—J. H. B.

Mrs. Jarr's Refined Tango
Party Is to Have a Night
Court Sequel.

"PLEASE, sir, there's a policeman at the door with a summons for you, he says," whispered Gertrude, the light running domestic of the Jarrs.

"Tell him we don't want any today," replied Mr. Jarr affably, "but ask the poor man if he'll have a glass of punch."

Meanwhile (at Mrs. Jarr's tango party to the Mimes Cackberry) the dance went gayly on.

"Where've you been, Gertrude?" asked Mrs. Jarr, as she came over, after being bumped off the dancing space by the plain clothes detective and Clara Mudridge-Smith.

"Please, ma'am, I've been to a friend, whistled Gertrude. "My gentleman friend, Claude, the fireman, was in to see me a minute," said Gertrude, "and I gave him a glass of punch; and right away he wanted me to become a blueshirt, he said, and dragged me off to the engine house and—"

"I got a summons for one Joe Doe and Richard Doe and Jane Doe and Mary Doe for disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace," said the uniformed policeman, stepping in.

"Hey, what's the matter with you?" These are my friends. I'm Duffy—Dennis J. Duffy, of the Poison Needle Squad," said the plain clothes guest, coming forward.

"I thought he said his name was Carey," whispered old man Smith.

"Geoghan, I understood it," said young Herbert Fynnsfoyle.

"Well, all I know is that complaints has been coming in since 11 o'clock (and it's now 3 in the morning) about disorderly conduct in this flat," grumbled the policeman. "The night watchman at the new Rafferty Apartments building down the street says he can't sleep, and the Captain sends me here with these summonses for John Doe and Richard Doe and Jane Doe and others—the same being notorious—"

"I'll take 'em. You go right back to the station house and tell the Captain that it's all right," said the detective.

"Tell him that Brannigan of the Chop Suey Squad is here like a duck. Tell him I'm on the job and tell him that I'll see order-is-preserved-and-all-dispersed-quietly-or-my-name's-not-Donagan. Detective Donagan, of the White Slave Traffic Squad."

"He's got a new name for every glass of punch that he's drunk," murmured Mr. Jarr in awe. "I tell you what, I don't know what John W. Rangle put in it, but it certainly is effective as an ice-breaker, a floor polisher, a joy polisher and a liquid disguise. All that detective knows or remembers is the roll call."

"Is it 8 o'clock? My, how time flies," cried Mrs. Stryver, as the uniformed policeman retired, and the detective guest was taking old man Smith how much money he intended leaving his wife when he died.

"But where is Irene?" gasped Gladys Cackberry.

"And Dr. Gilbert Gumm?" asked Mrs. Jarr.

"Why, didn't I tell you they had run away with the racing automobile?" asked Mr. Jarr.

"Maybe they're married!" cried Mrs. Jarr.

"How romantic! Suppose it had been us!" rushed Miss Gladys Cackberry to Jack Silver. "We should have sped off through space in the throbbing car, pulsing like a great heart!"

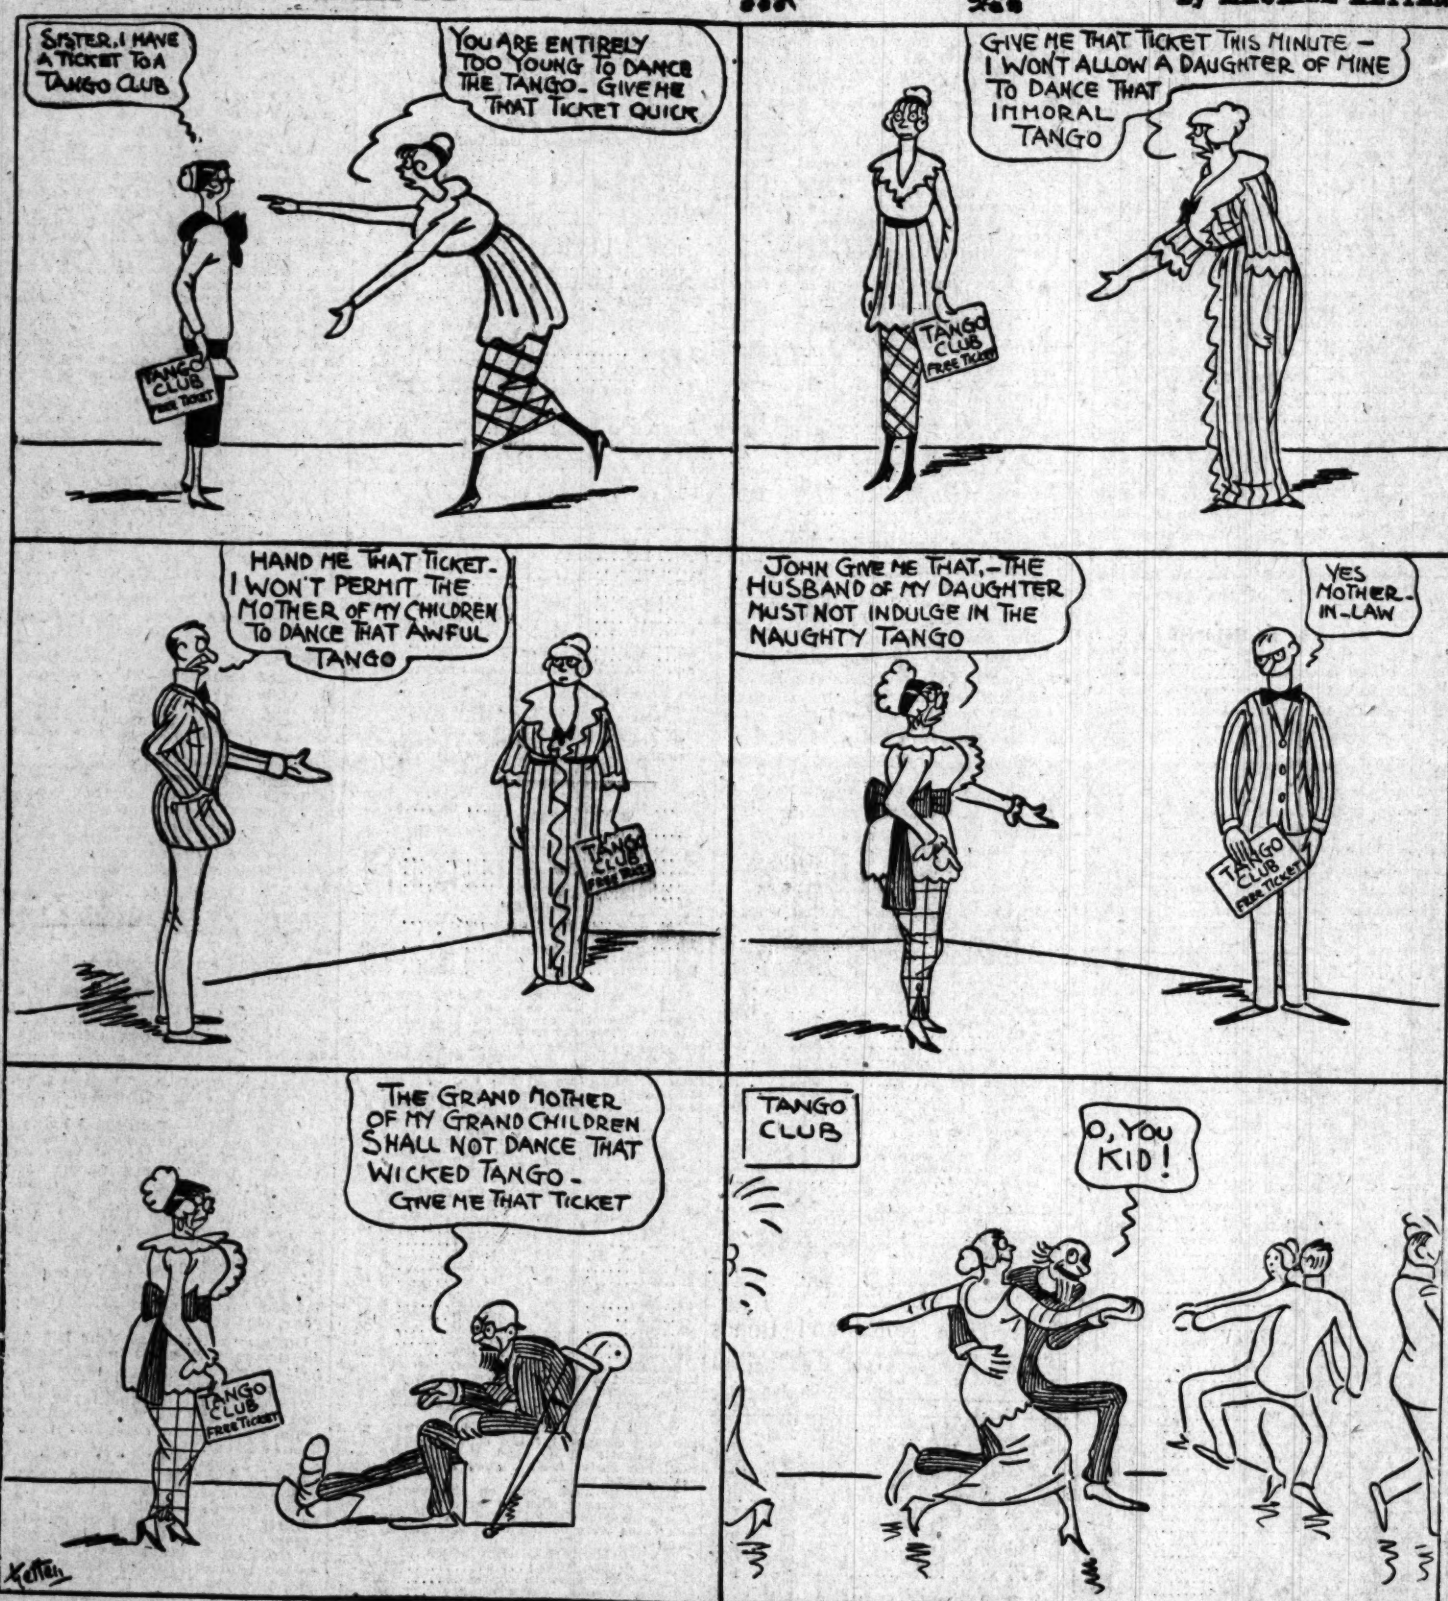

Jack Silver wiped his brow.

"I'm going to give up motoring. It's fraught with too much danger!" he gasped.

"Yes, yes!" cried Mrs. Stryver. "That is the way I would go through the Void over the Alps with a Dreamer, who would dare. Death and Love—the case Convention and Prudence to the Wind! Sam, get my rubbers and put 'em on for me," she added, turning to her husband.

CAN YOU BEAT IT!

UNNECESSARY NOISE.

MAYOR KIEL was driving his automobile through the crowded streets when two pretty young girls stepped into the crossing about 15 feet in front of the machine. He blew the horn violently, but the girls paid no attention to it. He blew it the second time, louder than before.

"Ah, what are you honk, honking for?" said one of the girls sharply. "We heard you the first time."

Young, But Indiscreet.

A CERTAIN man who lives in a suburban town in North Jersey is no beauty. He is not only long and angular, but has a face and a complexion that are neither pale blue, sky yellow nor any other color that dress effect will atone to, says the Indianapolis News.

One day the aforesaid party called to see an acquaintance and while waiting for him to appear in the parlor was entertained by the little 8-year-old son.

"Well, what do you think of me?" asked the caller, after conversing several minutes.

Instead of replying, the boy turned aside and thoughtfully his head.

"You haven't answered me," smilingly persisted the caller. "Aren't you going to tell me what you think of me?"

"No, sir," returned the youngster. "Do you suppose that I want to get a Hokin'?"

When the Son Set.

THERE was a little boy who began to keep a diary. His first entry was: "Got up this morning at 7 o'clock. He showed the entry to his mother, and she, horror-stricken, said: "Have you been to school?" "Got up, indeed! Such an expression! Does the sun get up? No, it rises."

And she scratched out "Got up at 7" and wrote "Rose at 7" in its place. That night the boy, before retiring, ended the entry for the day with the sentence: "Set at 9 o'clock."

Does Yours?

ARE you fond of moving pictures? "No; but my wife makes me do it every Sunday whether I like it or not."

"What would you charge for painting my portrait?"

"Oh, I never got less than $5,000."

HITS FROM SHARP WITS.

Realizing on His Policy.

THE president of the health insurance company was displeased, not to say ruffled. He considered himself a downy bird, a sharp-eyed spectator and a knowing card. The principal business of his company was to insure people against illness. That is, for the payment of a certain amount annually they could collect an indemnity for all time they were ill.

The prize winner of this insurance stood before the president and bowed his head to the storm of reproach which was cast upon him.

"What did you mean by insuring this fellow Brown?" shouted the president.

"Sir," said the prize winner, "he had never been sick for a day up to the time we insured him."

"But, can't you be reasonable?" burst forth the president.

"Well, I admit he has been sick a good deal since he took out his policy," admitted the man who was being hawed out.

"Sick a good deal!" thundered the president. "As well as I can make out, as soon as he got this insurance he gave up his apartment and took a car for the hospital." —Popular Magazine.

We All Are.

AT the dental congress at Asbury Park, Dr. J. P. Carmichael of Milwaukee, apropos of a disappointment in dental legislation, said philosophically:

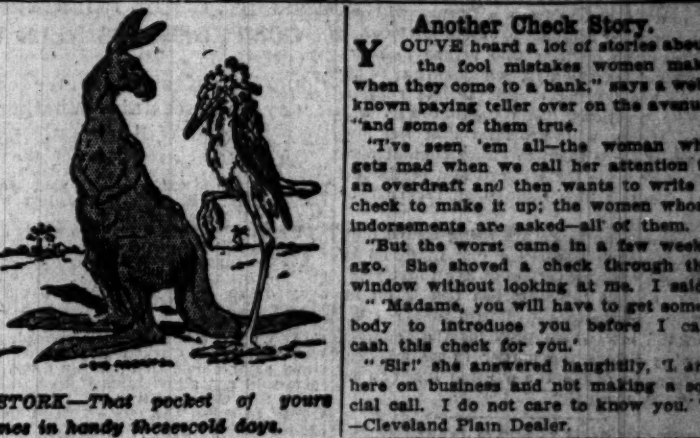

"Well, let us not despair. Let us remember the old maid."

"An old maid, you know, went into a decline."

"What's the matter with you?" her doctor asked.

"Oh, doctor," she sobbed, "I've been disappointed in love."

"Naturally," said the doctor. "I never does come up to expectations." —Washington Star.

"What would you charge for painting my portrait?"

"Oh, I never got less than $5,000."
